Stop Human Trafficking

In California, many vulnerable women and children are held against their will and forced to sell their bodies. The victims are often girls as young as 12 who are exploited for the financial gain of human traffickers. The FBI identified San Francisco, Los Angeles, and San Diego as high intensity child sex trafficking areas. A national study gave California laws an "F" for being too weak to fight child sex trafficking.

Vote YES on PROP 35 to protect children in California against sexual exploitation:

- ★ Increase prison terms for human traffickers
- ★ Require sex traffickers to register as sex offenders
- ★ Require sex offenders to disclose their internet accounts
- ★ Increase criminal fines to pay for victims' services
